

Workshop

Building a Safe Environment for Refugees and Host-Communities

Dealing with Conflict and Violence

AMICA e.V. We support women in conflict areas.

Information

- ▶ AMICA e.V. was founded in 1993 during the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina. We advocate for women and girls suffering under violence in conflict.
- ▶ Core areas of activity include psychosocial counselling, therapeutic support and aid in meeting subsistence needs and achieving livelihood security. Through the development of local women's initiatives, AMICA e.V. strengthens civil society. At the societal level, the activities of AMICA e.V. address women's rights, sexual violence in wartime, and women's political participation.
- ▶ Countries and regions: AMICA e.V. is active in the Balkans and the Arab world. The organization received the German UNIFEM prize in 2010 for its work in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo.

Workshop

Building a Safe Environment for Refugees and Communities

Content

How can you and your community foster a safe and inclusive environment for refugees? Together we will:

- ▶ Identify limitations, dilemmas, and obstacles
- ▶ Consider room for improvement within the current situation
- ▶ Assess local needs and wishes
- ▶ Co-create mechanisms for the safety of all
- ▶ Design tools for implementation

Methodology

We use participatory methods and interactive techniques to include all female and male stakeholders. This approach establishes common ground, guarantees local ownership, encourages the assumption of shared responsibility, reinforces social cohesion, fosters dialogue. A practical and bottom-up process that will equip your community with tools for implementing change.

Participants

The workshop addresses all key stakeholders: asylum seekers and refugees, professionals from health care and public service fields, from asylum centers and receiving communities.

Languages

German, English, Arabic.

Other languages will require an interpreter (not included in price). We are happy to provide you with multilingual information materials for your workshop.

Prices

Full Day Fee: 2.600 Euro*

plus traveling expenses and accommodation as required

Prices per trainer. For groups with more than 12 participants a second trainer is required. Max. number of participants: 25. For information about the trainers see: www.amica-ev.org/academy
